

Pro Week Part Two 2011 Summer Series

FEATURING

Phoenix Suns Coach John Treloar

Part Two-Player Development Clinic

2-Day Player Clinic: July 21st and 22nd, 2011

Emphasis on Individual and Team Defense Fundamentals

1-Day Coaching Clinic

July 21st 6:30pm-8:30pm

LIMITED ENROLLMENT

Who: 3rd Grade and up who want to learn from Master Coaches

When: July 21st and 22nd, 9 am - Noon

Where: Coquille's new Basketball facility

Cost: In district player $40, Out of district player $60

Parts One and Two: In district $70, Out of district $90

Coaches' Clinic: In district $25, Out of district $40

Register at www.coquillerecreation.com

or Call 985.892.9829

Coach John Treloar is the Phoenix Suns director of player personnel. He joined the Suns after 2 years as the head coach of the NBA Development Leagues' Erie Bay Hawks, an affiliate of the Cleveland Cavaliers. He was an assistant coach at LSU and Indiana University under Bob Knight and Mike Davis, helping to guide the Hoosiers to 6 NCAA Tournament appearances and the 2002 Final Four as well as LSU to the 2006 Final Four.

Doug Saylor played point guard for Louisiana State University, establishing a single game assist record with 14 assists. He now holds a M.Ed. in Human Performance & Health Promotion and is an NSCA CSCS. Doug has authored the instructional book, HoopLife, based on character, commitment and court savvy. Doug is producing a unique series of instructional DVDs to be released soon.
www.dougsaylorbasketball.com

